STRATEGY BATTLE GAME

GONDOR AT WAR

Designer's Commentary, August 2019

The following commentary is intended to complement the Gondor at War supplement. It is presented as a series of questions and answers; the questions are based on ones that have been asked by players, and the answers are provided by the rules writing team and explain how the rules are intended to be used. The commentaries help provide a default setting for your games, but players should always feel free to discuss the rules before a game, and change things as they see fit if they both want to do so (changes like this are usually referred to as 'house rules').

Our commentaries are updated regularly; when changes are made any changes from the previous version will be highlighted in magenta. Where the update has a note, e.g. 'Regional update', this means it has had a local update, only in that language, to clarify a translation issue or other minor correction.

These questions have been gathered from many sources. We are always happy to consider more questions, so please send any queries to:

Q: In the Streets of Minas Tirith Scenario, where do the Mordor Trolls deploy? (p.28)

A: Deploy a Mordor Troll in each section in the same way as the Morannon Orcs.

Q: In the Battle of Pelennor Fields Scenario, how many Blackroot Vale Archers are required? (p.58)

A: 12.

Q: Ingold's Resolute Fighter special rule states that he doesn't Back Away. Does this mean he cannot be Trapped? (p.78)

A: No. Even though Ingold doesn't Back Away, he will still count as being Trapped for the purposes of doubling Strikes, and other special rules that require a model to be Trapped.

Q: Do I still get Victory Points for wounding the enemy leader if my opponent still has Húrin alive and on the board? (p.79)

A: Yes. Húrin only prevents Victory Points from being scored for killing the enemy leader.

Q: Does Dernhelm count as two models (Éowyn and Merry) for the purpose of calculating model count and Break Point? (p.84)

A: Yes.

Q: As Dernhelm is essentially Éowyn and Merry, can they both declare a different Heroic Action in the same phase? For example, can Dernhelm declare a Heroic Strike and Merry also declare a Heroic Combat in the same turn? (p.84)

A: No. Whilst Merry is mounted upon Dernhelm's steed, they are a single model and therefore may only declare a single Heroic Action in each phase.

Q: Can Elfhelm re-roll his In The Way roll against a Cavalry model for seeing if he hits the rider or the mount? (p.85)

A: Yes.

Q: When deploying any models from The Mûmak War Leader's warband outside of the Howdah, do you measure from the Mûmak's base or the War Leader (who does not have a base)? (p.96)

A: From the Mûmak's base.

Q: The rules for the Mûmak War Leader state that he may include Haradrim Warriors in his warband from the Serpent Horde army list as if they were from the Far Harad army list. Does this mean they lose the Serpent Horde Army Bonus as they are no longer part of that list? (p.96)

A: Yes. However, remember that the Far Harad army list doesn't have any bows, so any Haradrim Warriors with bows that you include will be the only models that have bows towards your Bow Limit.

Q: If the Mûmak War Leader declares a Heroic Challenge whilst atop his Royal War Mûmak, as per The Making of a King special rule, and is successful, who gains the Might points back? The Mûmak War Leader or the Mûmak itself? (p.116)

A: The Mûmak War Leader.

Q: When part of the Grand Army of the South Legendary Legion, can the Mûmak War Leader declare a Heroic Combat whilst atop the Royal War Mûmak if it is Engaged with the enemy leader as per The Making of a King special rule? (p.116)

A: Yes.
