

BATTLETOME: OSSIARCH BONEREAPERS

DESIGNERS' COMMENTARY, JUNE 2023

The following commentary is intended to complement Battletome: Ossiarch Bonereapers. It is presented as a series of questions and answers; the questions are based on ones that have been asked by players, and the answers are provided by the rules writing team and explain how the rules are intended to be used. The commentaries help provide a default setting for your games, but players should always feel free to discuss the rules before a game, and change things as they see fit if they both want to do so (changes like this are usually referred to as 'house rules').

Our commentaries are updated regularly; when changes are made, any changes from the previous version will be highlighted in magenta. Where the date has a note, e.g. 'Revision 2', this means it has had a local update, only in that language, to clarify a translation issue or other minor correction.

Q: If a mortal wound caused by the 'Curse of Years' spell is negated, do I roll another dice as described within the rules text?

A: Yes.

Q: Can I unbind spells that are cast at the end of the hero phase by a Mortisan Soulmaster with its 'Mortek Throne' ability?

A: Yes.

Change to:

'At the end of the combat phase, you can pick 1 friendly OSSIARCH BONEREAPERS unit that is within 6" of this unit and had models slain in that phase. If you do so, roll a dice for each model from that unit that was slain in that phase. On a 4+:

- If the slain model had a Wounds characteristic of 4 or less, you can heal 1 wound allocated to its unit.
- If the slain model had a Wounds characteristic of 5 or more, you can heal up to 3 wounds allocated to its unit.
- If no wounds are currently allocated to the unit you picked, you can return a number of slain models to it that have a combined Wounds characteristic of equal to or less than the number of wounds you could have healed.'

You cannot pick the same unit with this ability more than once per phase.'
