BATTLETOME:
SOULBLIGHT GRAVELORDS

DESIGNERS’ COMMENTARY, JULY 2021
The following commentary is intended to complement Battletome: Soulblight Gravelords. It is presented as a series of questions and answers; the questions are based on ones that have been asked by players, and the answers are provided by the rules writing team and explain how the rules are intended to be used. The commentaries help provide a default setting for your games, but players should always feel free to discuss the rules before a game, and change things as they see fit if they both want to do so (changes like this are usually referred to as ‘house rules’).

Our commentaries are updated regularly; when changes are made, any changes from the previous version will be highlighted in magenta. Where the date has a note, e.g. Revision 2, this means it has had a local update, only in that language, to clarify a translation issue or other minor correction.

Q: Can I use the Deathly Invocation battle trait with each of my Heroes or only with 1 Hero?
A: With each Hero.

Q: There are no restrictions on the The Newly Dead ability allowing a unit of Deadwalker Zombies to go over their starting size. Is this intentional?
A: Yes.

Q: Does the ‘The Newly Dead’ ability on the Deadwalker Zombies warscroll apply to mortal wounds that are inflicted by the unit?
A: Yes.

ERRATA, JULY 2021
The following errata correct errors in Battletome: Soulblight Gravelords. The errata are updated regularly; when changes are made, any changes from the previous version will be highlighted in magenta. Where the date has a note, e.g. Revision 2, this means it has had a local update, only in that language, to clarify a translation issue or other minor correction.

Add the following to the end of the first paragraph:
‘If both players can set up gravesites at the same time, or if one player has set up faction terrain features at the same time as the other player can set up gravesites, they must roll off, and the winner chooses who sets up their faction terrain features or gravesites first.’

Change the rule text to:
‘At the end of the battleshock phase, count the number of enemy units that were destroyed during that turn and roll a dice, adding the number of destroyed enemy units to the roll. On a 5+, you can pick 1 friendly Soulblight Gravelords Summonable Deadwalkers or Soulblight Gravelords Summonable Deathrattle unit in your army that has been destroyed. If you do so, a new replacement unit with half the number of models in the unit that was destroyed (rounding up) is added to your army. Set up that unit wholly within 12” of a gravesite and more than 9” from all enemy units. Each destroyed unit can only be replaced once – replacement units cannot themselves be replaced.’

Page 78 – Command Traits, Hunter’s Snare
Add the following to the end of the rule:
‘This general does not receive any further modification to this number for being a Monster or having a Wounds characteristic of 5 or more.’

Change the first sentence to:
‘Each time the damage inflicted by an attack made with a melee weapon used by a friendly Kastelai Dynasty Vampire unit destroys an enemy unit, that friendly unit gains the relevant ability below for the rest of the battle.’

Page 82 – Battle Traits, Cursed Abominiations
Delete the second rules paragraph and add the following to the start of the first rules paragraph:
‘Cursed Abominiations are unique enhancements.’

Delete the sentence that reads:
‘In addition, you can choose or roll for 1 spell from one of the following tables for each Wizard in a Soulblight Gravelords army.’

Page 84 – Lore of the Vampires
Change the caveat under the table header to:
‘Nagash and Vampire Wizards (including Unique units) only.’

Page 85 – Lore of the Deathmages
Change the caveat under the table header to:
‘Nagash, Mortarchs and Deathmages Wizards (including Unique units) only.’

Page 88-91 – Path to Glory
These Path to Glory campaign rules are not compatible with the latest version of the Path to Glory rules from the Core Book. You can still use them to run a ‘classic’ Path to Glory campaign, or you can use the rules from the Core Book to run a ‘modern’ Path to Glory campaign.

Change the second sentence of the rule to:
‘In addition, this model can attempt to cast Arcane Bolt any number of times in the same hero phase, even if another Wizard has already attempted to cast the spell in that phase.’

Change the first two sentences of the rule to:
‘This model can issue this command at the start of your hero phase. If it does so, pick 1 enemy unit that is visible to this model.’
Page 105 – Command Abilities, Festing Feast
Change the rule to:
'This model can issue this command at the end of the combat phase.
The command can only be received by a friendly Soulblight Gravelords unit that made any attacks in that phase that destroyed any enemy units. You can heal up to D6 wounds allocated to that Soulblight Gravelords unit.'

Change the final sentence of the rule to:
'Until your next hero phase, that unit is eligible to fight in the combat phase if it is within 6" of an enemy unit instead of 3", and it can move an extra 3" when it piles in.'

Change the rule to:
'At the end of your movement phase, if this model has been slain, roll a dice. On a 4+, you can set up this model anywhere on the battlefield more than 9" from all enemy units, with all wounds allocated to it removed.'

Page 124 – Wight King and Wight King on Skeletal Steed, Lord of Bones
Change the first sentence of the rule to:
'You can use this command ability at the start of the combat phase.'
